Come and discover the oldest city in the United States all over again. For the first time in more than 100 years, St. Augustine is home to a majestic landmark hotel. Built in 1888 and restored in 2000, The Casa Monica Hotel is a charming mixture of Spanish architecture and first class service. Listed on the National Registry of Historic places and recipient of the much-coveted AAA Four-DiamondAward, The Casa Monica Hotel is once again the very heart of St. Augustine.
